

How can you assist CSDF and help more children?

Your contributions to CSDF are tax-deductible. CSDF accepts direct donations or contributions for its fundraising events. Donations can be designated specifically for medical research, public or medical education, or Camp Wonder. Memorial donations are also welcomed.

Every contribution of money and supplies or appreciated. No contribution is too small. Volunteering is another important way to contribute is. For example, teenagers and nurses are needed to assist children and their families.